Interesting Meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

Mayor Vaughan's Energy in Dispelling the Smallpox Scare.

The Town Overrun With Petit Thieves and Vagabonds.

An Unusually Interesting Batch of News

Quite a large number gathered in the Congregational church on Tuesday evening. This was the evening of the commencement of the Congregational Ministerial association, but the clergy gave way to the ladies here working in the interest of the Womens' Board of Foreign Missions, Mrs. Geo. F. Maroun, of Grinnell, Iowa, and Miss H. A. Hillis, formerly of Iowa, now a missionary in Ceylon. Prayer was offered by Rev. Geo. Little, of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa. Mrs. Magoun very pleasing manner from manuscript, of the work there was for women in foreign mission fields. That as in most heathen country's the misery and want and wretchedness fell to the lot of women. It becomes the special duty of women in all civilized communities where their rights are respected and protected, to work in a cause that tends alleviate their suffering, elevate their moral and social condition. In order to do this three things were indispensable: Thought, prayer and money. They must have more of these, especially the latter. In very eloquent terms she pictured the sinful, shameful condition of women in heathen lands, where wretchedness was the rule instead of the exception. Quoting a declaration made by that

At the conclusion of her remarks, Mrs. Hillis was introduced. She to him, Adams, as he was the agent. spoke very rapidly, and rather ind stinctly, but at the same time what she said was quite interesting. She described the exact location of the is land of Ceylon, its climate, govern-ment, etc., and that it has this advanspoken of by Mrs. Magoun on this island, that the women are on top and the men are the open who is the men are the ones who sit on stone floors and eat the thinnest part of the soup. Here the god they worship is made with hands, but the one they talk about is the god who gives them rice. She spoke for an hour of the school work carried on there through the instrumentality of the women' board of foreign missions.

Mrs. Hillis is not a very pleasant speaker, yet she has a way of making herself quite interesting.

HARD ON CLARA. Our morning contemporary devotes about half a column relating how Miss Kellogy visited one of our first class saloons and partook of a rich lunch; that there was three in the party and the bill come to $40. They know what they are talking about, for they had a reporter who stood by and who watched every mouthful she ate. They make the bold charge that Miss Kellogg talked all the time she was eating; that she even laughed right viding with criminals. Such a charge out loud. The Gate City editor will too when he reads that article. Now, Miss Keliogg may be a very poor nearly thirty years and always born a singer in the opinion of The Nonpareil, most exalted reputation in this regard worthy of nothing but empty chairs to sing to, but when it is claimed by that sheet that she hasn't the right to visi any one of Council Bluffs' palatial saloons and partake of a first class supper, we think it a little hard on

It is reported that Miss Poole, who sang with Miss Kellegg, remarked the next morning after the concert, that under the circumstances it was almost down with $6.85 for the benefit of the impossible to sing. In the first place school fund. the horses underneath were stamping their feet, and one of the gas jets kept up a continual hissing sound.

THE LITTLE GIANT. If there is a man in the city who can get signatures to a paper, that man is Vangtian. It is said the energy and persistency displayed by him in procuring the doctors' certificate that there was no case of small-pox in the city, was simply remarkable, be-lieving that if the facts was spread abroad that small-pox was raging here time, and almost in his night shirt, Stagg. went from doctors' house to doctors and persuaded them to sign the instrument, so it might appear in the morning papers, as it would have a tendency to dispell any fear the smallpox report might here raise.

A TAME MOUSE. There is a tame mouse in an office on Broadway. He will come out of his hole and est crackers out of the hand of the proprietor, who says he would not exchange him for either member of the city council.

WHY IT HAPPENED. Part of the Council Bluff local gave message, which appeared in THE BEE in full, occupying fourteen columns. The coon that assaulted the woman about a week ago, as reported in THE BEE, and robbed her in front of the Revere House in this city, was ex-amined before Judge Burke yes-terday, and held for his appear-ance before the grand jury now in session.

A man by the name of Borden complained at headquarters that the superintendent of our mammoth grain elevator assaulted him last Sunday evening. The case was put down for hearing December 21st.

HIS OPINION.

President Arthur has a brother; his name is William. He was interviewed by a Nonpareil reporter in this city, was then introduced. She spoke in a Tuesday evening, and gave it as his opinion that the government had begun at the wrong end in the Guiteau trial. They should have used the "hemp" first, and discussed the merits of the case afterwards. There is a horse in this city going

WHO IS IT?

Mayor Vaughan received a letter yesterday from the cashier of a bank in Burlington, Iowa, making inquiry in regard to a man by the name of Dixon who is presumed to have been killed in this city. The mayor replied that no such killing had been brought to the notice of the authorities here, but that an investigation would be instituted at once.

BAD BUSINESS.

There never was so much robbing and thieving carried on in Council Bluffs as at the present time. POLICE PICKINGS.

Frank Wright, arrested for being drunk, was fined $6.85; no lunds on hand; shoveled it out on the streets. Charles Hodges was put in Wright's place in the calaboose for the same offense committed yesterday, and will settle with the court this morning $6.85 or stone pile.
